

Intimacy!

It was not by chance that God created the heavens, the earth, the seas, the trees, the fish, the animals, the garden all before man whom He placed in the mist of it. Wow what a romantic backdrop for an intimate interlude. The sunsets and the sunrises alone would be enough to set the environment for intimacy but he also setup an water element with the three rivers in order to nurture the land and the precious gems that he placed in the garden. He dressed the garden up royally for special moments with His creation, man and woman. Then God made sure, at least before the fall, that man had time that was not consumed by the cares of trying to make the ends to meet. So every day God had intimacy with that which was created in his image.

Intimacy is the condition of being intimate and it is marked by close acquaintance, association or familiarity.

Well the first Adam corrupted the image and the second Adam (Jesus) did not leave an heir. “He was taken from prison and from judgment: and who shall declare his generation? for he was cut off out of the land of the living: for the transgression of my people was he stricken. (Isaiah 53: 8-9)” But we are that chosen generation (1 Peter 2:9) aren’t we? And when we are born again don’t we become a new creation? Don’t we take on the image of the heavenly? Hey! Aren’t we joint heirs with Jesus? Then I guesst that must mean that we are responsible to make sure that His seed and that His image will be fruitful, multiply and replenishes the earth? We become the agents of reproduction. Then it is up to each one of us that bear His Name to take the seed, which is the Word (Jesus) and spread it to the uttermost parts of the world. Then we will be able to subdue it and have dominion.

Remember Mary’s response to the good new, “For he hath regarded the low estate of his handmaiden: for, behold, from henceforth all generations shall call me blessed” (Luke 1:48). We all can share in the same joy and gladness. “The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life; and he that winneth souls is wise.”(Proverbs 11:30)

Prayer:

Lord, renew within me the desire.

The want and the need to reproduce

That which was created in me.

Please, Father, renew the right spirit within me.

That I might share that which you have given to me.

Remove all of the fears and apprehensions

That is associated with the reproduction process.

That I will be the joyful bearer of children. Amen!
